SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of :

Fifteen (15) years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. ☒ You must make restitution in accordance with sections 3663 and 3663A, or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
3. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
4. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☒ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)

DEFENDANT: JERALD GRAY a/k/a/ Jerald Francis Gray

CASE NUMBER: DVAW722CR000001-001

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

DEFENDANT: JERALD GRAY a/k/a/ Jerald Francis Gray

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1) Following release from imprisonment, the court will evaluate defendant's status and determine whether, after incarceration, substance abuse rehabilitation is necessary and appropriate. If additional rehabilitation is deemed appropriate, the defendant shall participate in a program as designated by the court, upon consultation with the probation officer, until such time as the defendant has satisfied all the requirements of the program.

2) The defendant shall reside in a residence free of firearms, ammunition, destructive devices, and dangerous weapons.

3) The defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, or office to a search conducted by a United States probation officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.

The Court's standing order no. 2018-07 (Re: Adoption of Special Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release in Criminal Cases Involving Sex Offenses and in Other Appropriate Criminal Cases) dated July 27, 2018, provides conditions of supervision for defendants who are convicted of a sex offense, or whose circumstances warrant the application of certain conditions. After considering the nature of the instant offense, as well as the defendant's history and characteristics, the court finds that the following special conditions are appropriate in this case:

1) The defendant shall register with all local and state sex offender registration agencies in any jurisdiction where the defendant resides, is employed, carries a vocation, is a student, or is otherwise required to register by the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act ("SORNA").

2) The defendant shall have no contact, direct or indirect, with any victim identified in the presentence report, or any victim's family member.

3) The defendant shall not contact or communicate, directly or indirectly, with persons less than 18 years of age ("minors"). This includes communication by any means, including verbal, written, telephonic, electronic or other communications. The prohibition against communication with minors is intentionally wide-ranging, encompassing the transmission of any information, whether by audio, video, digital or other means. It includes, but is not limited to, any communications via the Internet, cellular phone, any cellular phone or computer application, text message, social media, social networking website, blog, peer-to-peer file sharing network, or other method. This provision does not encompass minors working as waiters, cashiers, ticket vendors, and similar service positions with whom the defendant must deal in order to obtain ordinary and usual commercial services.

4) However, the defendant is authorized contact with minors: 1) who are relatives of the defendant; 2) who have familial relationships with relatives of the defendant; or 3) who have been identified and approved by the U.S. Probation Officer. The contact may occur only in the presence of another adult and with the prior approval of the probation officer. In considering approval of such contact, the probation officer should make an individualized inquiry and a particularized showing of need for the condition.

5) The defendant shall not use any computer, cellular telephone, Internet-capable device, GPS device or other device to contact a minor, gather information about a minor, or locate a minor.

6) The defendant shall not be employed in any position or participate as a volunteer in any activity that involves contact with minors without prior approval of the probation officer. The defendant may not engage in an activity that involves being in a position of trust or authority over a minor.

7) The defendant shall submit to an evaluation/risk assessment by a qualified mental health professional approved by the probation officer, who is experienced in the treatment of sexual offenders. The evaluation may include psychological and physiological testing (i.e., plethysmograph exams). The defendant shall take all medications reasonably related to his or her condition; complete all treatment recommendations, which may include physiological testing (i.e., polygraph exams), and abide by all rules, requirements, and conditions imposed by the treatment provider until discharged from treatment by the provider.

8) The defendant may not purchase, possess, or use any computer as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1), cellular telephone, or other Internet-capable device without the prior approval of the court, upon consultation with the probation officer. If approval is granted by the court, use of such devices shall be conditioned on defendant's compliance with the Computer Monitoring Program authorizing the probation office to identify, monitor, access and seize any such devices under the defendant's control.

9) The defendant must immediately disclose to the probation officer all computer device(s), cellular telephone(s), or Internet-capable devices to which the defendant has access.

- 10) The defendant shall participate in the Computer Monitoring Program adopted by this court and comply with all of the conditions in the program's Participant Agreement. The defendant shall allow monitoring software/hardware to be installed on each computer, electronic communication device, or other Internet capable device the defendant has access to at the defendant's expense.
- 11) The defendant shall allow the probation officer to monitor his or her computer activities at any time, with or without suspicion that they have violated their conditions of supervision, in the lawful discharge of the officer's duties. The defendant shall allow the probation officer to seize his or her devices and storage media for further analysis by law enforcement or the probation office, if the probation officer has reasonable suspicion that the defendant has or is about to engage in unlawful conduct or violate a condition of supervision.
- 12) The defendant shall submit to search and seizure of his or her computer, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1), electronic communication devices, data storage devices, or other Internet-capable devices. This may include the retrieval and copying of all data. The defendant should warn any other residents or occupants that the premises or vehicles in which the defendant may be located could be subject to search pursuant to this condition.
- 13) The defendant shall not possess, view, or otherwise use any child pornography as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(8).
- 14) The defendant shall not knowingly enter, or knowingly remain in, any location where materials depicting or describing "child pornography" can be accessed, obtained, or viewed, including pictures, photographs, books, writings, drawings, videos, or video games.
- 15) The defendant's employment shall be approved by the probation officer. Any proposed change in employment must be provided to the probation officer at least 10 days prior to the change and must be approved before the change may take place.
- 16) The defendant shall not reside or linger within 100 feet of any park, school property, playground, arcade, amusement park, day care center, swimming pool, community recreation field, zoo, youth center, carnival, circus, or other places that are primarily used or can reasonably be expected to be used by minors, without prior permission of the probation officer.
- 17) The defendant shall notify employers, family members, and others with whom the defendant has regular contact of the defendant's sex offender conditions and that the defendant is under supervision by the probation officer.

JERALD GRAY)

PRELIMINARY ORDER OF FORFEITURE AS TO DEFENDANT JERALD GRAY

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

A. As a result of the guilty plea on Count 1 of the Indictment, a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2252(a)(4)(B), and the defendant's agreement to forfeit certain assets and consent to waive notice of forfeiture, the defendant shall forfeit to the United States pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2253:

Any visual depiction described in 18 U.S.C. §§ 2251, 2251A, or 2252, 2252A, 2252B or 2260, or any book, magazine, periodical, film, videotape, or other matter which contains any such visual depiction, which was produced, transported, mailed, shipped or rec

Any property, real or personal, constituting or traceable to gross profits or other proceeds obtained from said violation of law, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2253(a)(2);

Any property, real or personal used or intended to be used to commit or promote the commission of said violation of law, or any property traceable to such property, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2253(a)(3);

B. The Court has determined based on the evidence of record and the defendant's plea agreement that the following property is forfeited pursuant to one or more of the above statutes, in that the parties agree the government has established the requisite nexus between such property and said statutes, and the Court so finds:

	Asset ID No.	Item Description
(1)	22-FBI-002998	Dell Tower computer SN: 00248322
(2)	22-FBI-002998	Cell phone with black case: (Samsung Galaxy S8, Serial# RF8K90FSDDJ)

C. The United States is authorized to seize the forfeited property whether held by the defendant or by a third party and shall:

(1) pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n) publish notice of this Order, thereby giving notice of the United States' intent to dispose of the property in such manner as the Attorney General may direct and notice that any person, other than the defendant, having or claiming a legal interest in any of the above-listed forfeited property must file a petition with the court within thirty days of the final publication of notice or of receipt of actual notice, whichever is earlier, and shall file the original petition with the U.S. District Court Clerk's Office, Roanoke Division, 210 Franklin Rd., SW, Suite 540, Roanoke, VA 24011 and shall certify a copy of said petition to the U.S. Attorney's Office, Asset Forfeiture Section, P.O. Box 1709, Roanoke, VA 24008. This notice shall state that the petition shall be for a hearing to adjudicate the validity of the petitioner's alleged interest in the property, shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury, and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in each of the forfeited properties and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought;

(2) to the extent practicable, provide direct written notice to any person known to have alleged an interest in the property that is the subject of the Order of Forfeiture, as a substitute for published notice as to those persons so notified;

D. The United States, at its discretion, shall be accompanied by federal, state, or local law enforcement officers to assist in the execution of this Order. Upon application by the United States, the Court shall issue any order necessary to effectuate and prevent the frustration of this Order pursuant to the All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a).

E. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.2(c)(1)(B), discovery may be conducted in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure to the extent necessary or desirable to resolve factual issues.

F. The United States shall have clear title to the subject property following the Court's disposition of all third-party interests, or, if none, following the expiration of the period provided in 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(2) for the filing of third-party petitions.

G. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce this Order, and to amend it as necessary, pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.2(e).

H. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.2(b)(4), this Order of Forfeiture shall become final as to the defendant upon entry, and shall be made a part of the sentence and included in the judgment.

ENTERED THIS 12TH DAY OF JANUARY, 2023.
